DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

II.(A) The management of the Society (except as otherwise provided by the Rules) shall be deputed to a G.C. consisting of the following officers:- President, General Secretary, Subscription Secretary, Treasurer, Patronage Secretary, Editor and the ten members or those constituting the committee in accordance with Rule 10. Any of the aforementioned offices may be held jointly by two or more persons at the discretion of the G.C. In case of an emergency the management of the Society shall be vested in the appointed officers (President, General Secretary, Subscription Secretary, Treasurer, Patronage Secretary, Editor) and the Chairman. At the first meeting following the AGM the G.C. shall elect, from its members, for one year a Chairman, Vice Chairman and Publicity Officer. The retiring G.C. at their November meeting shall each year appoint a General Secretary, Subscription Secretary, Treasurer, Patronage Secretary and an Editor. Where the retiring president, having at his election been a member of the G.C., seeks re-election to the G.C. at the termination of his/her term of office, his/her name shall automatically be included on the ballot paper together with the other members of the G.C. seeking election. The G.C. shall have power to create an honorary office or offices and elect patrons as and when necessary.

(i) The G.C. shall, at its first meeting following the AGM, elect the various sub-committees required to manage the Society's affairs throughout the year including:-

1) Shows Organiser.

2) Shows Committee.

3) Silver Star Committee (existing holders only [5 members]). Only written nominations duly proposed and seconded and received by the General Secretary by 31st October to be considered by the Silver Star Committee.

All above Committees have the power to co-opt members of the Society to assist for specific duties. Members serving on the above sub-committees do not necessarily have to be members of the G.C.

The G.C. shall ensure that minutes of all its meetings and those of its sub-committees are fully recorded and submitted to the G.C. for ratification.

5) Council of Judges, elected by members of the Society's Main Panel of Judges at their AGM (usually in March [6 members]).

The President, General Secretary and Chairman are ex-officio members of all sub committees with the exception of the Silver Star Committee and Council of Judges where they must be either existing holders of the Silver Star or qualified Judges under the Society's scheme before attending such meetings.

(B). The G.C. shall hold meetings as often as required, minutes of which shall be taken. Fifty percent of the residing G.C. members shall form a quorum and the chair at the G.C. Meetings shall be taken by the Chairman or in his/her absence by the Vice-Chairman, if neither of these be present the meeting shall elect a chairman. A meeting of the G.C. may be summoned at any time by the President, Chairman, General Secretary or Treasurer and written notice of such meetings shall be posted to all officers and G.C. members by the General Secretary to whom notice of such meetings shall be sent by the person calling such a meeting. At all meetings of the Society the Chairman shall have a casting vote only.

(C). The G.C. shall have powers to appoint sub committees for specific purposes and to co-opt to itself and/or such sub committees any member or members of the Society. Co-opted members shall have full voting powers.

(D). The G.C. shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur among officers during their term of office. If any vacancy occurs among the elected members of the G.C. it shall be filled by such unsuccessful candidate in the ballot who received the highest number of votes.

(E). The G.C. shall appoint nominated representatives to the General Council of the Budgerigar Society at their November Meeting for ratification at the following AGM.

(F). The funds of the Society shall be deposited in a bank in the name of the Society by the Treasurer and cheques drawn by him/her shall be signed by the Treasurer and the General Secretary or Chairman. The G.C. may authorise the opening of any account in the name of the Society and the transfer of funds thereto for any specific purpose and cheques drawn on any such account shall be signed by such persons being not less than two in number that the G.C. shall appoint.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

12. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held in the month of February each year upon a date and a time fixed by the G.C., and shall be attended only by current paid up members, for the following purpose:

- a). To receive from the G.C. a general report of the Society's activities and a report on the accounts for the preceding financial year. The accounts shall be signed by the Treasurer and the Auditors of the Society.
- b). To approve the subscription rate and patronage affiliations fee for the ensuing year taking into consideration any recommendations of the G.C.
- c). To approve the appointment of Life Members (40 years) and other officers and the election of any Honorary Life Member of the Society (as per Rule 4).
- d). To elect a President-Elect for the current year who will automatically be President the following year. Nominations to be submitted from the G.C. and members present at the A.G.M. and no member shall hold the President's office for more than two years in succession.
- e). To elect the Auditors and Scrutineers of the Society who shall not be members of the G.C.
- f). To consider any resolution of which 14 days notice shall have been given to the General Secretary.
- g). To consider any other business of which 14 days notice shall have been given to the General Secretary.
- h). To consider any other competent business.

Any amendment of Rules can only be passed by a two third majority of the votes cast at the A.G.M. A simple majority is needed for any other proposal.

13. The Agenda for the Annual General Meeting shall be posted to members at least seven days prior to the meeting. The Agenda shall include any resolutions or any other business of which notice has been given.

14. All resolutions and notices of any other business to be placed before the Annual General Meeting shall be sent to the General Secretary to reach him/her not later than 30th November of the previous year. All resolutions must be proposed and seconded by current members of the Society. Resolutions proposed by the G.C. shall also have been drafted before 30th November. No alteration to Society Rules can be considered within two years of its being passed commencing with the year 1997 unless it is Budgerigar Society Rules which will affect our Society's Rules.

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

15. The G.C. may call for any special purpose an Extraordinary General Meeting and shall be called by the committee if fifty members shall in writing requisition and state the purpose of such a meeting. The date of the meeting shall be not later than two months after the notice requisitioning such meeting. Discussion at any Extraordinary General Meeting must be confined to the object or objects specified in the notice. The quorum for all such meetings shall be twenty five members and once such a meeting has made a decision upon the matter or purposes for which it was called there shall be no further Extraordinary General Meeting to discuss them until two years after such meeting. Voting shall be by a show of hands and the proposals decided by the majority of those present and voting. The Chairman shall have a casting vote only.

BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS

16. All communications having reference to the business of the Society shall be addressed to the General Secretary only and if a reply is called for the member shall enclose a stamped addressed envelope.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

17. All members of the Society are subject to the Disciplinary Procedure of the Budgerigar Society (as per current B.S. Rule Book), copies of which can be obtained from the General Secretary upon request.

AFFILIATION

18. Societies in the area of the London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society, having a budgerigar section, may apply for affiliation to this Society. Such an application must be made in writing to the Patronage Secretary and include the appropriate fee.

INTERPRETATION OF RULES

19. The G.C. shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of the Rules.

DEFINITION OF STATUS

20. Definition of Junior, Beginner, Novice and Intermediate shall be the same as the current Budgerigar Society's Rules; copies of which can be obtained from the General Secretary upon request.

PART TWO
PATRONAGE RULES 2014
PATRONAGE CONDITIONS AND RULES FOR OPEN SHOWS

London & Southern Counties Budgerigar Society open show patronage is available, at the discretion of the General Council, to societies/clubs promoting an open show within the boundaries of the L&SCBS or to societies outside the boundaries, provided that they comply with the following patronage rules.

1. Judges engaged at open shows receiving Blue Riband, Rosette and Diploma patronages of the Society must be qualified in accordance with the requirements of the London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society, the Budgerigar Society or an Area Society affiliated to the Budgerigar Society.
2. The Society's awards (except trophies, see individual shows for details) shall be won only by fully paid up members of the London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society and for show season of the current year.
3. Exhibitors competing for the London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society special awards shall mark their entry forms LSCBS and quote their LS code number.
4. All exhibits must be shown in the Budgerigar Society approved show cages. The floor of cages to be covered with any seed suitable for budgerigars but millet sprays, whole or in part, shall not be permitted until after judging.
5. No exhibit shall be eligible for a London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society special prize at any patronage show unless it is itself a first prize winner in its class.
6. The following must be printed or duplicated in the show schedule and catalogue:-
This is a Blue Riband/Rosette/Diploma patronage show (whichever is applicable) of the London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society. Specials are for competition amongst paid up members only. For details of the show rules governing this patronage please see the current rule book. Yearly subscription of--- to be sent only to (Name and Address of Subscription Secretary). Patronage Secretary:- (Name and Address of Patronage Secretary). Exhibitors whose names do not appear in the catalogue cannot compete for specials.
7. It must be clearly understood that all birds in young bird classes must be wearing the official closed coded ring of the actual exhibitor with the current year thereon, such rings to have been purchased through the General Secretary of the Budgerigar Society. All entries must be accompanied by a written declaration on the entry form to the effect that these conditions are in order. Provision for this declaration to be on the entry form.
8. Providing the above Rules 1 to 7 have been complied with, the schedule and entry form may be sent with the catalogue and award sheet after the show.
9. Entries received too late for inclusion in the catalogue will not be eligible for Society awards.
10. A catalogue and award sheet must be sent to the Patronage Secretary within one month of the closing of the show together with a list of the LSCBS special winners.
11. All show promoting societies must adhere to the Society's definitions governing Intermediate, Novice, Beginner and Junior status as governed by the rules of the Budgerigar Society.
12. An application form is available to each society wishing to apply for open show patronage, which must be filled in and returned to the Patronage Secretary by the 28th February of the year of application. A stamped addressed envelope is required for reply.
13. Any alteration of show dates or names of judges must be notified to the Patronage Secretary immediately.

14. Patronage shall be granted to societies in the area covered by the LSCBS and may be granted to societies outside such area provided such societies adhere to the rules of this society.

15. Failure to comply with the patronage conditions will prejudice the current or any future application.

16. All open show patronage requests will be considered by the Patronage Committee in March under the following guidelines:-

a) For shows within the boundaries of the LSCBS area:

- 501 and above benched the previous year Blue Riband
- Between 201 to 500 benched the previous year Rosette
- Up to 200 benched the previous year Diploma
- Specialist & Rare Variety Shows BOC Rosette for each variety group scheduled

In all cases the Patronage Committee's decision will be final.

b) For shows outside the L&SCBS area boundaries patronage will be awarded at the discretion of the Patronage Committee, based on the size of the show and the number of LSCBS members that exhibited at the previous year's event.

17. In addition to the above, up to four special Blue Riband patronages may be granted by the Patronage Committee, not as a matter of course but only if considered necessary.

THE BLUE RIBAND

The Blue Riband is a special award consisting of a Blue Riband Certificate and a Society spoon. The winner of the most Blue Riband awards in a show season will be presented with the Blue Riband Cup at the following Annual General Meeting. A replica cup to be kept by the winner will also be awarded. Additionally a special award will be made to the junior exhibitor who wins most overall junior young bird awards at Blue Riband shows throughout the show season. The award is made for the Best Young Bird in each section (excluding Junior) exhibited by a member of the London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society. The judges making the awards must be those appointed in accordance with the Society's show rules. "Best Young Bird" means a current year bird wearing the exhibitor's official closed coded ring. A presentation will be made at the Annual General Meeting held in February after the show season.

AFFILIATED SOCIETY PATRONAGE RULES

These Rules apply to affiliated clubs within the boundaries of the LSCBS and are for members' Annual and Young Stock shows.

1. The current affiliation fee must be paid to the Patronage Secretary before patronage is granted for either "Rosette" or "Diploma" patronage.
2. It is suggested that judges engaged must be qualified in accordance with the requirements of the London and Southern Counties Budgerigar Society, the Budgerigar Society or any Area Society affiliated to the Budgerigar Society. However, no objection will be raised if a non-judge is engaged provided he/she is a current breeder and exhibitor of open champion or intermediate status.
3. Open patronage rules 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13 and 15 apply to these shows.
4. Specials are available for each section, champion, intermediate, novice, beginner and junior, as detailed below provided that separate classes are provided and the awards are applied for.
5. Classification includes a minimum of 16 classes per section plus two junior classes.
6. Exhibitors to show at the status governed by the promoting Club's Rules, as provided within the show schedule. This does not affect their open status.
7. An application form is available to each society wishing to apply for members' show patronage, which must be filled in and returned to the Patronage Secretary by the 28th February of the year of application.
8. A stamped addressed envelope is required with the patronage application form.
